

Course Evaluation Results: Property II

Dear Professor Blackman,

What follows are Fall 2014 course evaluation results for the above-referenced course. These results are based on the 52 evaluations returned, yielding a response rate of 88.14%.

At the top of page 1, the "Global Index" graph represents the combined average of all 11 evaluation questions. Underneath, the "Professor Evaluation" and "Course Evaluation" graphs represent the combined average of those question groups.

Next, the results for each individual question are displayed in a simple bar graph. To the right of each bar graph, more detailed data is displayed, as follows: number of responses to that question (n); the average response on a scale of 1 to 5 (av); the median score (md); and, the standard deviation (dev).

Finally, at the end of the report, you will find an unabridged scanned copy of all handwritten comments from your students, and a faculty "Profile" page which graphically displays your average score for each evaluation question.

Great Professor, teaching style, use of technology, etc.
 Would appreciate less ideology in some of the lessons.
 Overall great though

Very degrading to some students and more open to others
 He corrects people's speech based on New England pronunciations, he should probably just accept the fact that he is teaching a bunch of students from the South and that they and all of their future clients will talk in a way that is

I Really enjoyed your class. Prop. I & II should be combined into one course and sped up rather than having a break in flow and open more classes. It doesn't need all the time given it.

Excellent professor. Look forward to talking Con law seminar.
 One of the few profs who applies a common sense approach to class recitation, which requires adequate prep.

A bit bias in teaching which made it hard to listen.
 You can really tell that con law is important to him.

Shows bias against certain things far too much to be an objective prof.

Modern ^{constitutional} v. Poplar
 v. Veterans were far too prevalent and wasted time on time that should be spent on Property. We were robbed.

Youtube videos of class lectures very helpful

You spend way too much time talking about the Constitution in a Property class

He seems extremely excited about con law & that's cool but we had prop stuff that could have been covered.

The recorded lecture was nice of him. The internet component was cool too!

Though professor was enthusiastic about the course material, he was more enthusiastic about constitutional law.

He found a way to bring constitutional law into everything, even where it wasn't in the book, to the point where this felt more like a conlaw class than a property class.

We still learned what we needed to though, and I like constitutional law so it's cool.

Blackman Cool.

The prof sometimes didn't answer questions very clearly.

Also I wish he focused more on the rules of the cases and subject matter than the facts & details of the cases.

-overall I really enjoyed this class.

Great class.

Not at all available outside of class

Cool Guy

Nice Guy. A bit Abrasive & not too patient, w/ student's who don't understand material.

Would talk him up.

Blackman is way too focused on con law to teach any other subject. He is very condescending

I am a Democrat.

Scalia Sucks.

PEDANTIC, NO ONE CARES ABOUT YOUR OPINION.

Teach me Da Law.

Excellent and Generous use of technology to organize class and enhance student understanding. Great overall teaching method.

great enthusiasm for the subject.
WISH I TOOK HIM FOR CON LAW.

He has really nice legs.

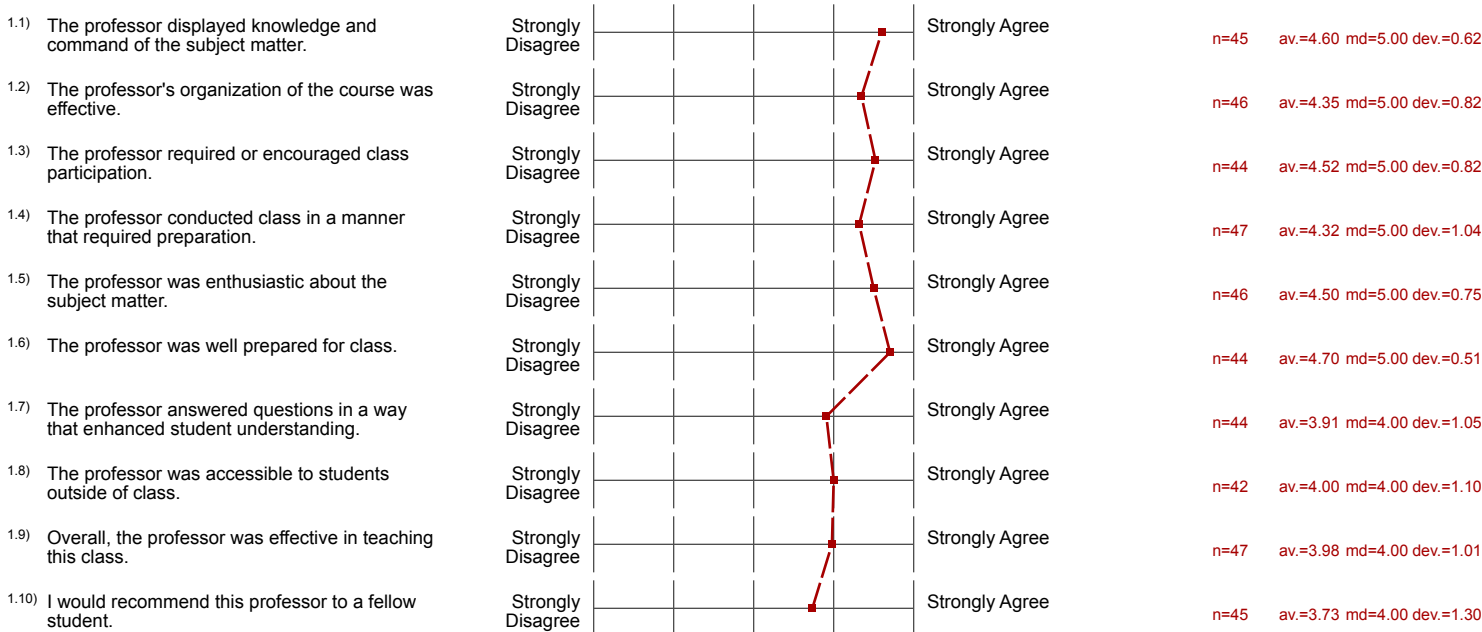

Really enjoyed class structure!
